Since 2006 Kim Hillman has specialized in Industrial, Logistics, Office and Investment Real Estate Sales and Leasing, as well as Tenant representation & Land Sales for Real Estate Developers. Her major focus until 2021 was in Southern California, and since that time she has moved back home to Houston to become a dual-State licensed Commercial Real Estate Broker focused in both California and Texas.

Prior to joining Combs Commercial Investment, Inc in Texas, Kim has been a Commercial Broker at KW Commercial in Beverly Hills, CA and in Houston, and still holds her license there in California.

Previously, Kim was Vice President at Lee & Associates, and at Colliers International, and served as a Director for Newmark Grubb Knight Frank, where she focused on Office and Industrial Sales, Leasing, and Land Development. She started her Commercial Real Estate career back in 2006 as part of a top Brokerage team at Grubb & Ellis in San Diego, generating Real Estate Sales and Leasing, conducting research analysis, utilizing marketing strategies, transaction contracts and financing.

Prior to her Real Estate career, and following her degree in Marketing and Communications, Kim was a Senior AE for KLOL/KTRH/KRBE Broadcast Stations in Houston, and CBS Stations in Honolulu, San Francisco and Los Angeles. Kim was also President of Full-Service Advertising Agencies in Houston and San Diego, providing media planning, negotiations, buying and commercial production of Television, Radio, Sports Marketing, Outdoor and Internet advertising.

Kim has been affiliated with many organizations and charities over the years, including: NAIOP, BIA, CREW, GoBiz and Economic Development Offices, City Chambers of Commerce and Re-development offices, and gives back to the community through Child Advocacy groups, American Cancer Society, Rady's Children's Hospital, Texas Children's Hospital and Parkinson's Disease Foundation.
